

Table of Contents

Preface

Acknowledgments

I. INTRODUCTION	1
Lessons from Knud Rasmussen	2
1. Inuit: “The People”	4
A Case Study of Pangnirtung: “ The gathering place of the bull caribou ”	7
The Collision of Cultures: “ That really hurts the old way of life ”	9
II. LIFE OUT ON THE LAND	20
Jagging for Fish	21
2. Traditional Roles: Gender and Survival	23
A Nomadic Life: “ There was no easy going ”	23
The Gender Calculus: “ A man is the hunter his wife makes him ”	28
Gender Roles in the Whaling Period	31
Crossing Role Boundaries	39
The Woman of the Waves	44
3. Traditional Power: A Delicate Balance	47
Definitions of Male and Female: “ More man-like...more woman-like ”	48
Traditional Power Relations: “ Both men and women were the leaders ”	49
Orchestrating the Family Structure: “ Inuit women were the planners ”	56
Arranged Marriages: “ That’s where women seemed smaller than men ”	60
Respect for Parental Authority: “ I was like a slave to them ”	65
Teachers on Land and Sea	67
4. Traditional Socialization: Learning by Doing	69
A Preference for the Male Child: “ He would become a hunter ”	70
The Ideal Woman, the Ideal Man: “ All the good things ”	71
A Natural Discipline out on the Land: “ My mother told me ”	73
Names and Naming: “ It’s a part of the culture that’s hard to understand ”	75
III. METAMORPHOSIS	79
The River	80
5. The Bad Times: And Starvation Stalked the Land	82
Hunger and Death: “ It’s only a story now ”	83
The Dislocations of Leaving the Land: “ We would just say yes ”	83
“The Dogs Were Dying”	85
Centralization: Education and Social Services	87
Town Growth: “ The Switzerland of the North ”	101
Race Relations: “ Everybody’s really nice up here ”	102
Matters of the Spirit	106
6. The Driving Forces of Change: Transforming Traditional Culture	109
Religion: “ Get rid of our practices and our life ”	110
Education Southern Style: “ Maybe they would give us a spank ”	114
The Lure of Television: “ Magic in the sky ”	116
Language: “ They seem to put their language aside ”	117
IV. LIVING ON THE EDGE	123
The Peninsula	124
7. Culture Shock and Marginality	125
Caught Between Two Worlds: “ What’s going on? ”	126
Cultural and Structural Marginality: “ No owner of soil ”	127
The Challenges of Marginality: “ Two big kids fighting all the time ”	128
People from the Outpost Camp	134
8. The Impacts of Resettlement	137

Far-Reaching Social Repercussions: “It was a shock to us”	137
The Shape of the Population: “We have many young people now”	138
The Demographic Transition	138
Fertility Rates	139
Infant and Maternal Mortality.....	140
Most Pressing Problems: We’re going different ways”	141
Weakened Culture	141
Family Relations.....	141
Earning a Living	142
Physical and Mental Health	143
Housing	144
Crime and Violence.....	145
Education	145
The Interplay of Issues: “We have to do everything ourselves”	147
Creating New Mechanisms for New Problems: “They start to share”	152
The Spousal Assault Committee.....	152
The Mental Health Committee.....	153
Suicide and the Cry for Help	156
9. Families Redefined: Maintaining Social Integration Against the Odds	158
Daycare: “They have a hard time finding a baby-sitter”	159
Guiding Their Children: “Not enough discipline”	161
The Seductions of Alcohol and Drugs: “We never want to refuse”	166
Alcohol.....	166
Drugs and Solvents.....	169
Figure 16: Drug Use in Nunavut, Western NWT, and Canada	169
Suicide: “They may have a problem with self-esteem”	170
Rates	170
Figure 17: Suicide Rates per 100,000 for Inuit, Indians, Canada	171
Struggling to Understand “Why?”	172
Female Attempts.....	176
When Suicide Hits Home	178
V. THE CHANGING BALANCE OF POWER	182
Visiting	183
10. Contemporary Roles: The Female Advantage	185
Role Expansion: “Goodness, we’re very busy people”	186
The Impacts of Role Reversal: “Things have changed over the years”	189
Women as Hunters: “I had my chance to shoot the polar bear and I got it!”	190
Capitalism, Northern Style	194
11. Contemporary Powers: A Reversal of Position	196
Balancing Act: “Nobody should be more powerful”	196
Power Differentials: “I expect my wife to be the boss”	200
The Generational Lag: “There are many things that women know”	203
The Power of Communication and Emotions: “That feeling comes out”	204
Intimacy, Affection, and Sexuality: “Now it’s different”	206
Needles and Dreams	209
12. Contemporary Socialization: Passing on the Culture	211
A Preference for the Male Child: “Today it’s the same thing	212
The Ideal Woman, The Ideal Man: “Pink is for girls”	214
The “Good Inuk Woman”	215
The “Good Inuk Man”	215
Ulus and Harpoons: “We help when we go camping”	217
Cultural Inclusion: “They teach the children skills”	218
“The old ways of life”	219
Cooking and Country Food: “I don’t know how people cope”	219
Bannock	220
Sewing, Embroidering, and Weaving: “Women were always sewing”	221
Sewing	221

Embroidery.....	225
Drawing, Printmaking, and Carving: “An important identity”.....	226
Pangnirtung Tapestry Studio: “They’re very experienced now”.....	227
Dancing and Singing: “Reels and jigs and fiddle music”.....	231
VI: THE BONDS OF INTIMACY.....	233
Qatsoo’s Daughter	236
13. Love and Living Together.....	236
The Reluctant Brides: “I would refuse and go my way”.....	238
Living in Common Law: “We’re protected in a way”.....	239
The Stigma of Remaining Single: A subtle class distinction exists	240
Pregnancy: “A natural part of life”.....	242
Customary Adoption: “Usually her mother would take it”.....	244
Like Moths to A Candle	253
14. Contemporary Marital Breakdown.....	255
Divorce: “If you break this, God will condemn you”.....	256
The Legacy of Guilt.....	257
Infidelity, Jealousy, and Divorce.....	258
The Stigma of Divorce: “It must be your fault”.....	260
Traditional Ways to Resolve Conflict: “Parents sat down with them”.....	261
VII. VIOLENCE AND LIBERATION.....	263
Coming of Age in the Midnight Sun	264
15. Violence against Women and Children:
The Complexities of Power.....	266
The Traditional Patterns: “Everybody got along”.....	267
The Contemporary Patterns: “I hear rumors”.....	270
The Rates of Spousal Assault.....	268
The Causes of Spousal Assault: “I don’t want it to happen”.....	272
Loss of Balance in the Settlements.....	273
The Male Physical Advantage.....	274
Alcohol and Drug Abuse.....	275
Disagreement and Jealousy.....	276
Lack of Communication.....	277
Children as Victims: “They’re not all being reported to us”.....	278
The Complexities of Reporting and Intervention: “The women are scared”.....	280
Shelters and Safe Houses.....	283
The Criminal Just System: “Look at it!”.....	288
VIII. A NEW CENTURY EMERGES.....	291
The Carvers: A Certain State of Mind	292
16. The Promise and Price of Becoming Educated.....	294
The Gender Gap: “Some young men get depressed and lose hope”.....	296
Attitudes toward School: “Friends are worried about their education”.....	300
Entrance into Higher Education: “They’ll have something concrete”.....	304
The Whale Hunters	310
17. The Meaning of Work.....	313
Welfare--A Double-Edged Sword: “They lose their good life”.....	314
A Staggering Unemployment Rate: “The jobs aren’t here”.....	314
White Collar, Services, and the Arts: “I’d Like to be a scientist”.....	318
Entering the RCMP: “They want to police themselves”.....	320
Women as Providers: “The pattern has changed a little bit”.....	321
IX. THE ROAD TO EQUALITY.....	325
The Kitaq: More Than a Room of Her Own	326
18. Perceptions of Women’s Rights and Women’s Liberation.....	330
The Constitutional Clause: “Men and women could have better relations”.....	330
Violence and Women’s Liberation: “I have a right to do what I want”.....	331
Women’s Involvement in Community Politics: “We should be a part of it”.....	333

Women in Territorial Politics: “ Women need to be recognized ”	337
Gender Parity	337
The First Nunavut Legislative Election	339
Other Political Routes	340
Women’s Involvement in National Politics: “ A few key women ”	341
Pauktuutit	342
Dreams for Their Daughters: “ Have a good life ”	343
Leaving the Arctic	346
19. Defining a New Political Identity: Nunavut	348
The Nunavut Dream: “ It’s about time ”	348
Devolution	349
The Nunavut Settlement Area Final Agreement	350
Figure 19: Significant Land Claims Agreements	351
Figure 20: Nunavut	353
Preparing for Implementation	354
Figure 21: Nunavut—Community-Level Data	355
Figure 22: Projected Population by Community	356
Anticipated Benefits of Nunavut	357
Anticipated Challenges	360
A Conceptual Framework for Change: Conflict, Vitality, Marginality	364
The Overriding Power of Gender Relations	364
Conflict-Functional Analysis	365
Social Impact/Social Vitality Analysis	368
Marginality and Marginalization	370
Toward the Future: “ This will be our biggest challenge ”	372

In the Elder’s Room	376
Endnotes	377
References	457